Base Ball.

BASE BALL AS PLAYED AND SEEN BY "GREEN GOGGLES."

From the Richmond Examiner.

RICHMOND, Sep the nine Sick-ta Six.

Mister Edetur.

Becin advised by the Dr. that a trip to the springs wood benefit my helth,—altho feelin werry well,—I took his advice and the trip. 4 days after that I tuk the Chills & Fevers. If ever you saw a handsum yung man a shakin it was me. I also had on a Yeller Vest. Concluden that if I continered a shakin that I'd soon be the subjeck of a interestin and hily edefyin Obituary, I shook the Springs and came to my town resedents, ware I learned by the noose papers that "Base Ball is all the rage in Richmond." Now ef thare is eny thing more'n another that I may be sed too admire (after a lunch) it is belonging to somethin as is "all the rage",—specially if its cheep and thar's no collexshun taken up at the door. I herd of "the dashingist kind of a Club" bein' formed, and sendin my naim & 2 dollars & a ½ received in return a note of a different denominashin wich sed as how I was entirely unanermusly electid a member of Mister Spottswoodses Bais Bawl Klub, and must send em $5,00, as they had a good deel of trubul electin me. I willinly p"d the sum and asked em for 4 $ & 75 cts. chainge,—but didn't git it. I was congratulatin myself on havin nuthin else too pay,—wen the member who was a tailor admired my classic form & sed how nice I would look in my new uniform,—wich only cost 28$ inclusiv of shoo strings. Then the member as sold a "Treetis on Bais Bawlin" got a $1,25 of me fir a Book,—& advisin me too lern it by hart,—give me my change in counterfits & bid me adoo. I konsidered it a reglar "doo."

Determined to practis in privit, I amputated the leg of a wash stand—& takin 3 of our landladys best fether pillars for "Basis," persuaded her son to act as "Pitcher"—wood yue believe, Sir, in less than a Week I was able to hit the ball. I hed prevously hit everything else—cept it. The force with wich I struck that bawl was a cawshin to yung men who hes been tenderly raised. No body cood a caught it—a old fashund clock tried to doo it—but got its hands and face demorilized. The next lick I maid—sent the ball agin the portrit of my landlady's "lait lamentid"—& glancin struck the looking glass —and staid thare.

Result "side out." Time one hour.

In three minutes more I was "out." The Landlady usin a broom and evidently under the impression that I was a Ball—I hollered "Foul" &—"Judgemint"—But she sed she'd giv me judgemint—I maid a splendid "Run"—& caught Bootjack," on the Fly. "Practess day"—come—I hed on my unetorm sinsz mornin—on my way too the "field" I was escorted by all the little boys & Dogs as was off duty. Severil of em seemin to imajin that a circus was cum too toun & I hed escaped from one of the cages. When I got on the "Field" the "captin" sed too me: "Goggles my boy—the "Short Stop"—ain't well—will you take his place"—of course—you understand it—eh?" I eckode "of corse!" But I hed'nt the least idea who Mr. "Short Stop" was—or wat he hed too do. Then the game commensed—it consists of a yung man & 8 acquaintences distributin therselves gratooitously over the green sward—then one of em hits the ball & runs—another one ketches it—then they all hollow "side out" & "Hooray!" "Hooray!" It is more excitin than 7 up, or mumly Peg.

All our fellers was in a uneform dress. Sum had green Pants and Red shirts, and sum others had'nt, but tha was uneform. My frend Gereen was told to "take 1st Base"—he took it and put it into the waggin—then sum one asked "ware is the Pitcher." I was jis takin a drink out of it and brot it over but found that "the Pitcher" ment a man as throws the ball.

Then my frend & pitcher—he took the Ball—and the Captin hollered out "Look sharp! lively short stop! keep yer eyes skinned!"—Then a yung man of much mussil hit the Ball with the bat—then every body hollered "Lively short stop! catch it!"——I hev a indistinct recolexshin of trying to catch that ball—I think I failed—I'm certin I did—but I kept my eyes skinned—fact is—that tho a week hes elapsed—I have kept em skinned ever sinse. Then ther was a mis-deal—and I was "at the bat." The 1st & 2nd time I hit it I missed it—but the 3rd time I herd sumthin go "thug!" then everyboddy sed Run! Run! But it did'nt need em to tell me to run—fir in hittin at the ball—I had struck the "catcher" and he was after me with a nuther club.

The man on 1st Bais knocked me doun, the Vampire sed "out." I got mad and cussed, then I was fined $4,00 fir swarin! But I stood it all, and tried too steal a Base, when a "Fly Ball" hit me somewhare about where I wore my belt, and I laid down. I was carried off the field, the ball was extracted, and I hev cum too the konclushin that the base ball may be "helthy Sport," (!) but it is the best imitashun of work I ever seed.

I paid my fines and dews and severill bills as follows:

Innesheashen Fees,	$ 7.50
Books & Club,	1.50
Uneform,	28.00
Repairin Clock and Portrit of Landlady, (lait lamentid.)	10.00
Doctor's Bill & Court Plaster,	20.00
	$67,00

I think I'll join Tenor Ball Klub & until the Opera kums agin.

I'm yours, Basely,

GREEN GOGGLES.

EAT HOG, AND DIE.—Yesterday, a group of negroes sat in the shade of a dilapidated shanty on Nicholson street, a head of cabbage and a couple of wilted watermelons between them, at which they gnawed alternately. Not a square distant a negro child was dying with the cholera, and the negroes seemed to be inviting a visitation. While the negro population are so reckless and improvident, it is a mercy that the disease does not rage among them with uncontrollable violence.—Norfolk Virginian.

Hon. Henry J. Raymond has publicly pledged himself to introduce a bill into Congress for a repeal of the law, and for the refunding of the $2,000 additional pay given to each member of Congress at the late session.

A VALUBALE COTTON FARM FOR RENT OR LEASE,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS.—The subscriber wishes to lease for a term of years his plantation near Marlboro, Pitt County.

The farm contains about

400 ACRES

of improved land, well adapted to the growth of cotton and corn. The facilities for composting or manuring are greater than ordinary.

Vegetable mould, or peat, well rotted, lies in a branch for near a mile in length on one side of the field, overlying marl of superior richness. This marl contains, by analysis, with other fortilizing constituents, 6 pr. ct. of Coprolyte, or Phosphate of Lime.

There are ample buildings for dwelling and every needful purpose, on the place.

To the farmers of the middle counties, industrious, working, practical men, who wish to repair their fortunes by cotton planting, this place offers rare inducements. To such men, if without capital, I could give aid the first year, by furnishing stock, provisions &c., to be paid for out of the crop, if desired.

As none but industrious, working men can make cotton successfully, none but those who come well recommended as such need apply.

NEWBERN COTTON EXCHANGE.

NEWBERN, N. C., SEPTEMBER, 10th. 1866.

I Have made arrangements which will enable me to advance in Cash, to any extent, on the present crop of Cotton, on very fair and liberal terms to the Planters. I propose to keep an open policy of Insurance to cover Cotton by insurance as soon as it is delivered at the Railroad Depot, provided the owners will notify me they wish it. I would particularly call the attention of my customers to the importance of having their Cotton In Good Shipping Order.

I would also advise them to keep separate, as far as possible, the different grades, and to distinctly mark each bale with their name or initials; also, to send me immediately after delivering it at the Depot, the Railroad Agent's receipt for it. I will on all Cotton, whether it is to be sold in Newbern or to be shipped.

MAKE LIBERAL CASH ADVANCES

I have made every arrangement to sell or ship Cotton to the very best advantage, and assure my customers that everything shall be done to advance their interest.

A full supply of Cotton Bagging and Rope, Genuine Georgia Cotton Gins, Belting, Gin Castings, &c., &c.

kept constantly on hand at lowest prices.

THE GORGAS

MINING AND MANUFACTURING COMPANY,

On Deep River, Chatham Co., N. C.

OFFER FOR SALE

AT AUCTION!

Their entire Manufacturing Establishment, Including Grist Mill, &c., &c.

The Gorgas Mining and Manufacturing Company will sell at public auction, on the premises, the 27th. instant, their valuable

IRON WORKS AND MILL,

Situated on Deep River, 30 miles west of Raleigh, and 6 miles of Pittsboro', the county seat of Chatham county. The Mill is now in operation, grinding Wheat and Corn.

The Water Power is unsurpassed, being capable of the application of 300 horse power, if necessary.

The Machinery embraces every variety used in first-class Machine Shops, such as Planers, Lathes, Milling Machines, Trip and Drop Hammers, Rip Saws, &c., &c., complete for making Railroad Cars, or can be easily converted into a first-class Agricultural Manufactory.

There are 27 Cabins and large Stables on the premises, and ample accommodations for laborers and teams.

The Factory is situated in the midst of Coal and Iron fields, immediately on the river, which affords transportation at trifling cost.

Inexhaustible Copper Mines, of superior quality, are within 1½ miles of the shop, and it may be added that the country adjacent abounds in magnificent forest of Pine and Oak.

At the same time, will be sold—

30 Tons of Pig Iron.

In addition to Steamboat Navigation from Wilmington to the Factory door, a Railroad is now in process of construction from Raleigh to the Gorgas Company's Factory.

Our Agent, on the premises, will show the property to any one wishing to examine it.

Letters of enquiry may be addressed to Col. J. M. HECK, Warrenton, N. C., or to P. T. NORWOOD, Petersburg, Va.

J. M. HECK, President, Warrenton, N. C.

P. T. NORWOOD, Secretary, Petersburg.

"The First of the Season."

LARGE

Opening of New Fall Goods,

With an extensive assortment of CARPETS, RUGS, DRUGGETTS AND GENERAL HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, and an entirely new stock of the handsomest DRESS GOODS the market affords.

Ladies will find this the best opportunity to procure choice new styles of FALL DRESS GOODS, which I am now opening in great variety, such as splendid Eugenia and Empress Cloths, Crepes, Merinos, Goldanelia, richly embroidered—an entirely new things, rich, brilliant silk stripes on chene grounds: "Transconia A'Soie, effective Careaux, with rich Broches," "Lornetto, effective Satin Carreatux," on lasting finish grounds, very costly; "Rich Valentia, in plain chene," all new and desirable shades, psime qualities and beautiful designs, with rich Broches.

A magnificent assortment of

SQUARE & LONG SHAWLS

in all their new styles and combinations, at prices that will not fail to please. I would call special attention to my stock of the largest in Va., or North Carolina, embracing 20,000 yards, all bought at auction, and will be sold at prices far below any similar quality ever offered in this market. I have also just received over 10,000 yards of PANTALOON GOODS, in every variety of finish and quality, varying in price from 30c, to $3. This stock is the largest and most complete of the kind that I have ever offered, and will be constantly replenished during the season as the demand requires.

GENUINE IRISH LINENS,

At a future day I will enumerate the different lines of Goods I usually keep. Suffice it to say, at present, that everything kept in any first-class Dry-Goods House can be found here, in every variety, at the lowest prices.

I would say to those in want of

that the greatest care has been taken in the selection of the best colors and finest fabrics, and they have but to be seen to be appreciated, so that those in want had better

GIVE US A CALL BEFORE PURCHASING ELSEWHERE.

I would also call the attention of the public to the celebrated Florence Lock Stitch Sewing Machine.

This Machine, being but recently introduced, is already gaining for itself a host of friends, as our daily sales testify. Its simplicity and recommend it to all. It possesses all the best qualities of the good standard Machines, with several important improvements, more fully explained in the "Circulars," which I send free by mail to any address on application.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. B. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Friday Evening, Sept. 21, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS. NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

County Meeting.

We are requested to suggest that a meeting of the conservative citizens of Wake, who support the policy of President Johnson, and are favorable to the re-election of Gov. Worth, be held at the Court House, in this city, on Saturday, the 22nd. inst., for the purpose of nominating candidates to represent this County in the next Legislature, and of consulting together upon the condition of the country.

It is very desirable that the conservatives in each Captain's district take steps to be represented upon the occasion.

THE SENTINEL.

Clubs! Clubs!! Clubs!!!

The coming events of the next six or twelve months will have an intense interest to every American citizen. North Carolinians have a great stake in the political developments of the country during that period.

The Sentinel will continue to stand by the Constitution as it is, and by the Union of the States, ever advocating principles which lie at the foundation of the Constitution and the Federal government.

It shall continue to be a correct and truthful newspaper, carefully compiling what can be interesting or of utility to the people of North Carolina.

The price of single subscriptions to the Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly Sentinel will remain as heretofore, but, in order to extend our circulation, we will hereafter send it to clubs of subscribers at the following rates:

Daily, for three months to clubs of four subs.	$8.00
" for six months to clubs of four sub.	16.00
Semi-Weekly, for three months to clubs of four sub.	4.00
Semi-Weekly, for six months to clubs of four sub.	8.00
Weekly, for three months, to clubs of four sub.	2.00
Weekly, for six months, to clubs of four sub.	4.00

By this arrangement the Daily for six months will cost each member of a club, of four or more subscribers, only $4 each; the Semi-weekly, will cost each member of a club, of four or more subscribers, for six months, only $2 each; and the weekly will cost each member of a club of four or more subscribers, for six months, only $1 each, and half that price for three months. Subscriptions at club rates will not be taken for a longer term than six months. The cash must always accompany the order.

The Holden-Thomas-Lehman, &c. &c. Convention.

Of all the fiascos and farces that have distinguished political movements in this State, the Radical so-called "Convention," which assembled at the Standard office in this City, on yesterday, may legitimately claim the pre-eminence. Heralded with an immense flourish of trumpets by the chief fugleman at Raleigh, and the little blower at Newbern, we confidently expected that at least twenty five delegates would be in attendance. The official record of proceedings, which has just been laid upon our table, does not apprise us how many were actually present, but we are informed that there were not more than fifteen or twenty at the outside. The best idea of the size of this "Union State Mass Meeting," (as it is ludicrously designated in the official proceedings) may be gathered from the fact that the getters-up of the concern were ashamed to expose the paucity of their numbers to the public, and that the whole vast concourse were comfortably seated within the narrow precincts of Mr. Holden's editorial sanctum. The delegates came and went without stirring the surface of our usual city monotony and tranquility. But little curiosity even was evinced as to their whereabouts or action; there was no perceptible increase of population on our streets, and no one, unapprised of the fact, would have dreamed that a "Mass State Convention" was actually in our midst, and that the capital was favored by the presence of so many distinguished individuals.

It seems that Mr. Holden presided, and Messrs. R. W. Logan, of Rutherford, and W. J. Doughty, of Carteret, were appointed Secretaries. It required a doughty scribe, indeed, to take down the doings of that immense affair.—A committee of eleven, consisting of two from Craven, Messrs. Thomas and Lehman, of course, and one from each of the other nine Counties represented in this great out-pouring of the "masses," was appointed to report resolutions for the meeting. This duty the committee discharged, after "due deliberation," and reported a series, to which we shall have occasion often to refer, nominating Gen. Dockery for Governor, and endorsing the Howard amendment and Radical programme out and out. Among these committee-men are included the name of one young gentleman, a Mr. Harriss, styled of Rutherford, but really of this city, who, we learn, has not attained his majority, and the name of another who did not hesitate to avow his opposition to the Howard amendment.

James F. Taylor, H. J. Menninger and E. D. Blair were appointed a Committee to apprise Gen. Dockery of his nomination. We suggest that the chairman perform this duty in verse,—a department in which he shines with conspicuous lustre.

A Committee of fifteen was appointed to aid in promoting the Union cause in the State, consisting of the following gentlemen: Lewis Thompson, of Bertie; David M. Carter, of Beaufort; Dr. Eugene Grissom, of Granville; C. R. Thomas, of Craven; O. H. Dockery, of Richmond; E. L. Pemberton, of Cumberland; Thomas Settle, of Rockingham; Robert P. Dick, of Guilford; Calvin J. Cowles, of Wilkes; Tod R. Caldwell, of Burke; R. M. Henry, of Macon; A. H. Jones, of Henderson; L. L. Stewart, of Buncombe; G. W. Logan, of Rutherford; Dr. W. Sloan, of Mecklenburg.

After which, in silence, and amid the furious peltings of a pitiless storm,—harbinger of the storm of popular indignation that awaits this conclave of agitators,—the "Union Mass State Convention" adjourned.

Rumor had announced a great speech from Mr. Holden, when the Convention should assemble. The audience hardly justified such an expenditure of valuable breath, however, and we probably have the intended speech in a circular on our table addressed "to the People of North Carolina," to which we shall pay our respects fully in all good time.

Mr. Holden's Speech.

That great speech which the public was advised would be delivered before the Holden-Radical Convention, that was to have been holden in this city, was laid on our table this morning, in the form of an address to the people of the State, signed "W. W. Holden." It is issued in circular form and is designed for an electioneering document. We cannot cumber our columns with its crude and unfounded attempts to prove that the Howard Amendment, so far from being in any wise objectionable to the people of North Carolina, is a perfect God send to us poor rebels, originating in the exuberant compassion and overflowing benevolence of the Radical Congress, and is in fact but a reflex or true daguerreotype of President Johnson's plan or policy. Our true conservative cotemporaries of the State will see the entire platform and speech in the Standard of to-morrow, and such Radical presses in the State as may choose to publish it. We shall give our readers a summary of their contents and such a ventilation of their dangerous doctrines as occasion offers.

We find the following statement in the address, which we cannot pass unnoticed:

"It is true one of the Senators elected by the Legislature is a loyal man, and is debarred from subscribing the oath only by a technicality; but it is well known that his election was conceded by the majority simply as a matter of policy, and that his colleague, who received nearly all the votes that were cast, had been a conspicuous advocate of the rebellion, and was then, as he is still, an 'unpardoned rebel.'"

The above is of a piece with Mr. Holden's repeated asseverations, which the facts do not justify and which have been often denied. Mr. Holden has striven from the outset to put Gov. Graham in a false position. No sense of personal responsibility, it seems, can prompt him to do simple justice to that distinguished man. The people of North Carolina know that no man in the State opposed secession with more vehemence than Gov. Graham; that no man did more than he to keep North Carolina out of the war, until the proclamation of Mr. Lincoln forced her in; that no man was more loth than he to break the last link that bound the State to the Union; that when his State determined to go, he manfully stood by her to the last, but that he was ready to embrace the earliest opportunity to restore peace and Union, when he saw, as he at first predicted, the futility of the efforts of the South against the immense odds arrayed against it.

Mr. Holden places Mr. Pool in a false position also. We have been surprised at Mr. Pool's silence under these misrepresentations. Mr. Pool knows, and the people of North Carolina know, that he could not as an honest, honorable man, take the test-oath or subscribe to it, if the merely technical disability were removed. Whether he has aspirations for the future or not, we do not know, but one thing is certain: he could not take that oath even mentally, and after that hope to hold up his head in North Carolina.

"North Carolina Union Soldiers."

We observe, on reviewing our remarks in reference to the proposed delegation of "North Carolina Union soldiers," to the Convention at Pittsburg, Pa., on yesterday, that they are capable of misconstruction and may, consequently, do injustice to some. Our remarks are not intended to apply to any man who honestly adhered to the Union cause and who entered the Federal army and honorably discharged the duties of a soldier. Every man, at the outset of the contest, had the right to take his own position, and no man is justly censurable who did that. But we alluded to those North Carolinians only, who at first embraced the Southern cause or who remained quietly in the State, but who afterwards either deserted the Confederate cause or became hostile to it, and who joined themselves to squads of bushwhackers and buffaloes, and became burglars, pillagers or murderers of their own people, as was undoubtedly the case with a number of wicked scapegraces both in the Eastern and Western Counties. We were informed by respectable authority that some of the names in the list published were of that character. Such men can never have the confidence of any respectable man or soldier, and they deserve the execration of society every where. We can respect the true soldier, impelled by high, honest motives, whether Federal or Confederate, who did his duty; but for the man who meanly deserted his colors on either side, or attached himself to bands of highway robbers to commit depredations upon his own defenceless people, the stamp of infamy should be put upon his forehead forever, that all men may see it and shun him.

WE ARE sorry to observe that some of our friends are growing despondent, in consequence of the change of tone in the N. Y. Herald, and the results of the elections in New England.—What should there be in the fact that New England has not changed, or that the Herald has changed, to warrant fresh apprehension? Did not every man know that New England would remain New England, and is this the first time that the Herald has sold itself to the highest bidder, and, in order to get its price, pretended in the first instance to a different policy?

A Planters' Convention is announced to meet at Atlanta, Georgia, on the first of October, to discuss the failure of the cotton crop, and adopt precautionary measures for next year.

Gen. Alfred Dockery.

It is announced that Gen. Dockery was nominated on yesterday for Governor, in the office of the Standard, by fifteen men, who threw President Johnson overboard and endorsed the Howard amendment. A messenger has been dispatched to inform him of his nomination and urge his acceptance. We cannot yet believe, that Gen. Dockery, though now seventy years of age, has so lost his discretion, that he will consent to represent such a clique and thus identify himself with the Radical party. It is possible that the vanity and tractability of old age may overcome him, but we shall not believe it until he so announces it. Nor can we believe that Lewis Thompson, D. M. Carter, Thomas Settle, R. P. Dick, or O. H. Dockery, who were appointed on the State Executive Committee by the clique which met here, can thus identify themselves so positively in opposition to the President and in favor of the Howard amendment and the Radical party, with such Radicals as W. W. Holden, Tod R. Caldwell, R. M. Henry, A. H. Jones, L. L. Stewart, G. W. Logan and Dr. W. Sloan. There are perhaps others named in the Committee who cannot do it.—But if those named or others should do so, then they have deliberately purposed to join hands with the worst enemies of the State, to effect her degradation and ruin. Citizens of North Carolina! Lovers of the fame and honor of the good old North State! Rise in your might to rebuke in the strongest terms those who seek to dishonor, to humiliate and ruin you.

Officers Under the Howard Amendment.

In writing hastily, the other day, noticing objections to the Howard amendment, we committed an error, to which a friend has called our attention. We stated that, in the event of the passage of the Howard amendment, no good could enure to the Radical party, for the reason that there were enough competent men in the South to fill all the State offices, who had never taken the oath to support the Constitution of the United States and since violated it. Every lawyer in the State, of any prominence, has taken the oath to support the Constitution of the U. S., and no class of men so unanimously sustained, in some form or other, the Confederate cause. The principle of the Howard amendment would exclude the lawyers.

The passage of the Howard amendment and its enforcement, it seems, would unfrock nearly every Judge and every Solicitor in the South. What would be our condition in North Carolina? The Supreme and Superior Court Judges and the Attorney Generals and Solicitors of this State would nearly all, if not all, be swept away by its passage. Even if two-thirds of the Congress could be found sufficiently lenient to pardon enough lawyers to make Judges and Solicitors, we should be at least twelve months without the Supreme or Superior Courts and without County Solicitors in many Counties.—Has Mr. Holden, and those who favor the Howard amendment, thought of this?

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention at Cleveland,—Last Day's Proceedings.

The Convention of Soldiers' and Sailors' at Cleveland, although not so largely attended as was anticipated, has proven a decided success. Senator Doolittle, who was in Cleveland, was not called on to speak, because of the determination of the Convention to admit no outsiders, especially those of a political character. The Convention assembled at the appointed hour and the report of the Committee on Permanent Organization was adopted. It appointed Gen. Gordon Granger permanent President, and he was introduced to the Convention by General Steedman, when, in answer to the hearty cheers of the crowd, the newly inaugurated President made a glowing speech.

A committee on address and resolutions was then appointed. General Wool, being unable to remain to the close of the proceedings of the Convention, took his leave of those assembled in a short speech, which was enthusiastically cheered.

A telegram was received from General Dix, in which he sent the greeting of the Soldiers and Sailors in mass convention at New York, on Monday night, and another was received from General Forrest and other Confederate officers in Memphis, in which the late Confederate Soldiers in a mass meeting at that city send their greeting, and say they are willing to leave the settlement of their difficulties with the soldiers of the Union. Gen. Gordon Granger was instructed to send a suitable reply.

The Convention took a recess until the afternoon. On again assembling a Committee was appointed to wait on the President of the United States, and present him with a copy of the proceedings of the Convention. The committee on address and resolutions then reported the resolutions, which were unanimously adopted. They approve the resolutions adopted by the Philadelphia Convention of August 14th., declare the war was waged not to oppress the rebellious States but to maintain their relations in the Union, and that whenever there is armed resistance to the constituted authorities in any section of the United States the soldiers and sailors of the late war will again go forth to battle against it. The address or declaration of principles is lengthy and reviews fully the present aspect of political affairs, and opposes the Constitutional Amendment as being effective only of a prolonged exclusion of Southern States from the Union. It calls upon the soldiers and sailors of the late war to unite together in their efforts to restore the Union that their bravery defended.

The Convention in the evening adjourned amid great enthusiasm and repeated cheers for Grant and Farragut. Generals Rousseau, Steedman, Custer and others were serenaded in the evening, and made stirring addresses.

More of the Radical Gag in the West.

The Radical organs publish with evident gusto the following statement about Senator Doolittle's reception by the people of Racine, where he lives:

"He was greeted with hisses and groans, * * * and declared his determination to speak in spite of them. A demonstration of addled eggs had, however, a quieting effect, and he was compelled at length to desist."

What a commentary on republican institutions, and what a demonstration of the virtue and intelligence of the Radical party!

A calculation in one of the Macon journals estimates that it will require fifteen million bushels of corn to supply the deficiency in Georgia, the next season.

"Might and Main" are very powerful, but Maine and money are still more so. For proof, vide New York Herald.

General Lee's Application for Pardon—Interesting Correspondence.

HEADQUARTERS ARMIES UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20, 1865.

General R. E. Lee, Richmond, Va.:

GENERAL:—Your communication of date the 13th instant, stating the steps you had taken, after reading the President's proclamation of the 20th ultimo, with the view of complying with its provisions when you learned that, with others, you were to be indicted for treason by the Grand Jury at Norfolk; that you had supposed that the officers and men of the Army of Northern Virginia were, by the terms of their surrender, protected by the United States Government from molestation so long as they conformed to its conditions; that you were ready to meet any charges that might be preferred against you, and did not wish to avoid trial, but that if you were correct as to the protection granted by your parole, and were not to be prosecuted, you desired to avail yourself of the President's amnesty and proclamation, and enclosing an application therefor, with the request that in that event it be acted on, has been received and forwarded to the Secretary of War, with the following opinion endorsed thereon:

"In my opinion, the officers and men paroled at Appomattox Courthouse, and since, upon the same terms given to Lee, cannot be tried for treason so long as they observe the terms of their parole. This is my understanding. Good faith as well as true policy dictate that we should observe the condition of that Convention. Bad faith on the part of the Government, or a construction of that Convention subjecting the officers to trial for treason, would produce a feeling of insecurity in the minds of all the officers and men. If so disposed, they might even regard such an infraction of terms by the Government as an entire release from all obligations on their part. I will state further, that the terms granted by me met with the hearty approval of the President at the time, and of the country generally. The action of Judge Underwood, in Norfolk, has already had an injurious effect, and I would ask that he be ordered to quash all indictments found against paroled prisoners of war, and to desist from the further prosecution of them. U. S. GRANT,

"Lieutenant General.

This opinion, I am informed, is substantially the same as that entertained by the Government. I have forwarded your application for amnesty and pardon to the President, with the following endorsement thereon:

"Respectfully forwarded through the Secretary of War, to the President, with the earnest recommendation that this application of General R. E. Lee for amnesty and pardon may be granted him. The oath of allegiance required by recent order of the President does not accompany this, for the reason, I am informed by General Ord, the order requiring it had not reached Richmond when this was forwarded. U. S. GRANT,

"Lieutenant-General.

"HEADQUARTERS, ARMIES UNITED STATES, June 16, 1865.

"Very respectfully, "U. S. GRANT, "Lieutenant-General."

The Pittsburg Convention---Response from General Grant.

HEADQUARTERS ARMIES UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, D. C., September 18, 1866.

L. Edwin Dudley, Esq., Chairman Executive Committee Soldiers and Sailors Union:

Sir,—General Grant directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your invitation to be present at a "National Convention of Soldiers and Sailors to be held at Pittsburg, Pa., September 25, 1866," for political purposes. He instructs me to say it is contrary to his habits and to his conviction of duty to attend political meetings of any character whatever, and that he sees with regret the action of any officer of the army taking a conspicuous part in the political dissensions of the day.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, ADAM BADEAU, Colonel and Aid-de-Camp.

Rather hard on the Radicals who invited the General.

ST. PAUL AS A BOARDER.—"How do you like the character of St. Paul?" asked a parson of his landlady one day.

"Ah! he was a good, clever old soul, I know, for he once said, you know, that we must eat what is set before us, and ask no questions, for conscience sake. I always thought I would like him for a boarder."

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Cotton Gins, Snuff, &c. B. P. Williamson & Co.

See Court advertisement from Alamance County.

See announcement of Towles' Auction on Saturday, (to-morrow.)

INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF, DUMB AND THE BLIND.—We are glad to be able to state that the present session of this Institution promises to be more successful than any in the history of the Institution. The number of pupils will reach 75 or 80. The efforts of the Principal, W. J. Palmer, Esq., are indefatigable in making the Institution equal in all respects to any Institution in the country. The material comforts of the Institution, as well as the intellectual, are carefully attended to, and every effort is made to promote the welfare of the pupils.

LUNATIC ASYLUM.—We are informed by those who have inspected closely this institution, that, under the care of the Governor and Board of Supervisors, the waste and injury to it arising from the war are being rapidly repaired and that it is now in a most excellent condition. The accomplished Superintendent, Dr. Fisher, and his assistant, Dr. Fuller, are devoting themselves assiduously to their duties. The health of the Institution has been unusually good the present season. Numbers of the patients have been restored to their homes and families in their right minds, and every effort is made to relieve and render comfortable the more unfortunate who are deemed incurable.

We regard this as the great charity of the State. Every effort should be made to foster and improve it. The plan adopted by the last Legislature was a wise measure. The institution cannot fail to give satisfaction under such management.

THANKS to Mr. Blair, the inimitable caterer of the "Exchange Hotel," for seasonable remembrance about the dinner hour on yesterday. May his shadow never grow less!

OMINOUS.—The flag suspended from the office of Chief Quartermaster of the Department of North Carolina, in honor of the Radical "meeting" on yesterday, was blown down and tattered by the violent storm last evening. We have rarely seen, in this latitude, a more violent gust. The storm of the elements was a fit accompaniment to the turbulent conclave at the Standard office.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE ARRIVALS, Sept. 20th, 1866.—H. L. Sore, Fayetteville; B. B. Perry, Louisburg; D. A. Barnes, Murfreesboro'; R. Riendly, New York; Mrs. Huskins and family, N. C.; C. H. Hatch, N. Y.; A. F. Moses, Goldsboro'.

AS "BASE BALL" seems to be the rage, all over the country, at present, the amusing "experience" on our first page will not be out of place.

THE CAPE FEAR RIVER.—The Wilmington Dispatch says that there is less water in the Cape Fear River between that city and Fayetteville than there has been before this summer.—At Rockfish the river is not more than twelve inches deep.

"SOUTHERN SERIES OF SCHOOL BOOKS."—Owens & Agar, Publishers, 110 William Street, N. Y., will issue in a short time these popular publications, revised and improved by the author, Richard Sterling, A. M., Principal of Edgeworth Female Seminary in this State. The series embraces ten volumes, which have been arranged with great care and with special reference to the principles of progress. They will appear with entirely new stereotype plates and illustrations, and will be unsurpassed in mechanical execution. The publishers say that while the author "has carefully excluded from his pages everything that would tend to foster sectional prejudices and animosities, he has at the same time given due prominence to home interests, employments, literature, history and geography; and the selections have been taken largely from southern writers and orators, thus making the pupil acquainted with the best specimens of Southern intellect and eloquence. We do not claim however that these books should receive patronage simply because they have been prepared by a Southern Teacher.—But because they are the result of thirty years experience as a practical educator, and are suggested by what as a Southern Teacher the author has long felt to be a great want in his schools; and still further as they are inferior to none in their typography, pictorial illustrations, quality of paper, binding, &c., the publishers think that they have some claims upon the Southern people for their patronage and support."

In addition to the above there will be issued "Sterling's Southern Series of Writing Books," prepared upon new, plain and practicable principles.

We cannot too heartily commend these publications to our instructors of youth.

MECKLENBURG CO.—James M. Hutchison and R. D. Whitley, Esqs., are announced as candidates for re-election to the House of Commons from this County.

MOORE CO.—We are gratified to learn that G. Willcox, Esq., is a candidate for the House of Commons in this County. He is a Johnson-Worth man, and we hope he may be elected.

North Carolina Conference.

The next North Carolina Conference of the Methodist E. Church, South, will commence its session in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, November the 7th, next. Bishop Pierce will preside. Some have desired a change in the time of meeting, but after consultation it has been deemed best that the original appointment of the Bishops should remain. The press of the State will please notice.

THE MAILS.—Dr. Jobe, the Special Mail Agent for the State, has returned from the West to this city. All parties in the State who desire Post Routes, Mail Contracts, Post Masters, &c., or any information upon the subject, should address Dr. Jobe at this place at once.

For the Sentinel.

Ladies' Memorial Association---A Card.

The ladies of the "Memorial Association of Wake Co.," tender their united and heartfelt thanks to Mr. Henry Mordecai, the generous donor of the lovely spot designed as a last resting place for the remains of our martyred heroes. His name will be hereafter linked in our memories, with those noble spirits, whose many deeds of valor, and untiring efforts in our behalf, receive our highest appreciation.

We will endeavor to improve and beautify the spot, thereby rendering it an attractive resort for the mothers, wives, sisters, daughters and comrades in arms, of those noble sons of the South, whose memories 'twill be our pride and pleasure to perpetuate.

MRS. L. O. B. BRANCH, Pres.

General News.

Greely does not give Bennett a very warm greeting as "a man and a brother," on his appearance as a Radical. He says:

"There is reason to fear that the editor of the Herald will presently announce his adhesion to the Republican party. 'And at last Satan came also."

NOTICE.—Rev. William Potter, late of North Carolina, went last spring to New York on business. He was in that city on the 9th of June, since which time his family have not heard of him. He was a Baptist and a Mason. Any information concerning him, addressed to Mrs. Margaret R. Potter, Richmond, Va., would be thankfully received. If papers at the North will publish this notice, they will greatly oblige a poor and deeply afflicted family.—Religious Herald.

VIRGINIA BONDS.—A large sale of Virginia bonds transpired in Baltimore on Saturday at $43, an advance of one-half. Nothing transpired in Coupon Bonds, but all were firm.

A barbecue was recently given in Carroll county, Miss., for the benefit of the Confederate Monument Association, at which $1,500 or $2,000 was contributed. Speeches were made by Hon. Mr. Merrill and Dr. Kittrell.

The Houston Telegraph, of the 5th, gives a circumstantial account of an attempted abduction from her mother of a negro girl, by a Col. Mason and a Capt. Porter, of the U. S. Freedmen's Bureau.

Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors' Convention,---Vengeful Resolutions.

BOSTON, Sept. 18.—A Convention of the soldiers and sailors of Massachusetts was held in Faneuil Hall to-day, for the purpose of adopting measures to secure the equalization of all bounties to soldiers of Massachusets, and to secure to loyal men and their posterity the fruits of the late war. N. P. Banks was chosen President, and among the Vice Presidents were Gens. B. F. Butler and Bartlet. The Convention was addressed by Gen. Banks, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That treason should be made odious, and that the authors should be punished. That in the name of our starved and murdered brothers at Andersonville, in the name of our slaughtered brothers on every battle field, in the name of the widows and orphans, in the name of American liberty and American justice, we protest against the pardon and release of Jefferson Davis. We protest against the insulting leniency that feasts and pampers a blood-stained traitor, who should occupy a felon's cell, and live or die on felon's fare; and we demand that he be brought to trial for his crimes and treason without delay; that he be convicted and that he be hung.

The Convention chose delegates to the Pittsburg Convention.

A boy down East is accustomed to go on the railroad track and imitate the steam whistle so perfectly as to deceive the men at the station. His last attempt proved eminently successful; the depot master came out and switched him off.

A Few Important Facts in Regard to the Southern Hepatic Pills.

1. They are prepared from the best quality of Medicine by the discoverer, now an aged Minister of the Gospel, and are safe.
2. They have been known for years and tested by thousands in the South, and are specially adapted to diseases of this climate.
3. Hundreds of persons are known to have been cured by them.
4. They are not recommended by the proprietor for everything, but only for diseases which arises from disordered livers.
5. Directions and certificates accompany each box, and these certificates are from well known and most respectable individuals.
6. Correspondents recommend them as good for Liver Disease, Chills and Fever, Pneumonia, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Billious Rheumatism, Worms, Pluriesy, Bronchitis, Costiveness, Diarrhœa, and Hepatic Consumption, &c.
7. Several gentlemen state that the use of these Pills has been to them an annual saving of from $100 to $200.
8. Some Physicians of the highest standing prescribe them to their patients, and hundreds of boxes have been sold to regular practitioners.

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $3 a dozen. Address.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Gedrick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty o[illegible]."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude.

WEIGHING THE BABY.

BY ETHEL LYNN.

"How many pounds does the baby weigh
Baby who came but a month ago?
How many pounds from the crowning curl
To the rosy point of the restless toe?"

Grandfather ties the 'kerchief's knot,
Tenderly guides the swinging weight,
And carefully over his glasses peers
To read the record "Only eight."

Softly the echo goes around:
The father laughs at the tiny girl;
The fair young mother sings the words,
While the grandmother smoothes the golden curl.

And stooping above the precious thing,
Nestles a kiss within a prayer,
Murmuring softly, "Little one,
Grandfather did not weigh you fair."

Nobody weighed the baby's smile,
Or the love that came with the helpless one;
Nobody weighed the threads of care
From which a woman's life is spun.

No index tells the mighty worth
Of a little baby's quiet breath—
A soft, unceasing metronome,
Patient and faithful unto death.

Nobody weighed the baby's soul,
For here on earth no weights there be
That could avail; God only knows
Its value in eternity.

Only eight pounds to hold a soul,
That seeks no angel's silver wing,
But shrines it in this human guise,
Within so fair and small a thing.

Oh, mother, laugh your merry note;
Be gay and glad, but don't forget
From baby's eyes looks out a soul
That claims a home in Eden yet.

The Crown Prince of Prussia and the Prince Charles, who won the great victories that now give the leadership of Germany to Prussia, are about thirty years of age, while Benedek and the chiefs on the Austrian side, overwhelmed with defeats, are old fellows of sixty or eighty years of age. Disraeli told the story years ago in "Coningsby"—"The history of heroes is the history of youth."

Silver plate belonging to the royal family of Saxony, sent to Prague, weighs thirty tons, and the Crown jewels ten tons.—Exchange.

Wouldn't the sight of that lot make Butler's "eyes bung out," and fingers tingle for a grab at it?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegeo Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

$400 REWARD.

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH,

GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to me that JOSEPH SUGG, late of the County of Wake in said State, stands charged with the murder of one W. L. Fort, late of said county and State, and that the said Sugg is a fugitive from justice and has escaped beyond the limits of the State:

Now, THEREFORE, in order that the said Sugg may be arrested and brought to trial, for the said alleged murder, I JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, do issue this my proclamation, offering the reward of FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS for his apprehension and delivery to the Sheriff of said County of Wake.

In witness thereof, His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, has hereto set his hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

L. S.

Done, at the City of Raleigh, this the 29th. day of August A. D. 1866.

By the Governor: JONATHAN WORTH.
WM. H. BAGLEY, Private Secretary.

DESCRIPTION.

JOSEPH SUGG is represented to be about 20 years of age—5 feet, 6 or 7 inches high—dark hair—blue eyes, round face—full lips—nose slightly inclined to turn up—florid complexion—has rather a down look—in conversation draws out his words long and loud—wears No. 5 shoes, and generally black clothes.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R E COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va. Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON, Superintendent Hillsborough Military Academy, Hillsborough N. C.
